

Manhattan Institute

www.manhattan-institute.org
52 Vanderbilt Ave
New York, NY 10017
212-599-7000 | Fax: 212-599-3494
communications@manhattan-institute.org

Focuses on research on the subjects of taxes, health care, energy, the legal system, policing, crime, homeland security, urban life, education, race, and culture. They aim to foster economic choice and individual liberty.

Dreyfuss, Richard Adjunct Fellow	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Regularly contributes to PublicSectorInc.org• Former Director of Compensation and Benefits for The Hershey Company• Previously Chair of the Pennsylvania Health Care Cost Containment Council• Pension and health care expert
Eide, Stephen D. Senior Fellow	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Work focuses on public administration, public finance, political theory, and urban policy• Previously Senior Research Associate at the Worcester Regional Research Bureau• PhD in political philosophy
Malanga, Steven Senior Fellow	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Expert on pensions and debt• Directly influenced Senator Chris Christie and Governor Jeb Bush with his writing
McMahon, E. J. Senior Fellow	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• President of the Empire Center for Public Policy, Inc.• Writing encourages policy changes to promote economic growth at the regional, state, and local level• Recent work focuses on New York's unsustainable public pension and retiree health care costs