

National Center for Policy Analysis

www.ncpa.org
14180 Dallas Parkway, Suite 350
Dallas, TX 75254
972-386-6272

A nonprofit, nonpartisan public policy research organization, the NCPA researches Social Security and Medicare reform policies. Their proposals would replace pay-as-you-go entitlement programs with funded programs under which each generation would fund their own retirement.

Kotlikoff, Laurence Senior Fellow	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Member of the National Bureau of Economic Research, Fellow of the Econometric Society, and President of Economic Security Planning, Inc.• Previously member of the Executive Committee of the American Economic Association and Senior Economist with the President’s Council of Economic Advisers• PhD in economics
Saving, Thomas R. Senior Fellow	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Executive Director of the Private Enterprise Research Center at Texas A&M University• Previously Public Trustee of the Social Security and Medicare Trust Funds and Commission to Strengthen Social Security• Research focuses on health care and Social Security• Elected as President of the Western Economics Association, Southern Economics Association, and Association of Private Enterprise Education
Villarreal, Pamela Senior Fellow	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Expert on retirement, economic growth, and tax issues• Written numerous papers on retirement topics such as minimum wage effects, the jobs market, returns on stock and bond investments, and retirement account reforms• Featured on FOX Business News, CNBC, Forbes, Bloomberg, USA Today, Money Magazine, and The Washington Times